Rutgers School of Dental Medicine
Selective-Elective Program

COURSE#: [x] SELECTIVE [x] ELECTIVE
TRIMESTER: TBD

DEPARTMENT: Orthodontics
COURSE TITLE: Invisalign

MAIN PURPOSE OF THIS COURSE:
Invisalign Training for the 3rd/4th Year Dental Student

COURSE CONTENT:
This dynamic course is designed for dental students to allow them to begin utilizing Invisalign immediately upon course completion

OBJECTIVES OF COURSE:
Minor tooth movement, and why it is now considered the standard of care for restorative-cosmetic cases.
Diagnosis and treatment planning simple orthodontics utilizing Invisalign.
The different Align products available and their application.
Case selection for novice providers.
Patient consultation and case presentation.
Basic orthodontic movements (Ortho 101).
ClinCheck analysis and how to determine predictable results via the Tooth Movement Assessment tool.
Patient compliance and troubleshooting techniques.
Occlusion and its importance in long term stability and function.
Proper retentive techniques.
How to start and complete a simple Invisalign case before graduating.

EVALUATION OF STUDENTS:

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
Number of students: Unlimited
Day/Time: 8:00am – 4:00pm, Wednesday, November 16, 2016
Number of weeks of Program: 1
Number of hours of Program: 7

TOTAL: 7

COURSE DIRECTOR(s): Thomas Cangialosi